

JEAN BEAUVOIR

JEAN BEAUVOIR

Jean Beauvoir embarks on a new chapter of his illustrious career this 2016/2017!

Most easily recognized by his trademark blonde Mohawk hairstyle, he started his professional recording career in his teens with the legendary US punk group, The Plasmatics, he has continued a long string of successes ranging from Little Steven Van Zandt, to being signed by Richard Branson for his platinum debut solo album "Drums Along The Mohawk", which spawned the international hit single and leading track for Sylvester Stallone's film COBRA, "Feel The Heat", to numerous other successes throughout his career.

As a lead vocalist, songwriter and producer, in addition to his solo works and bands Voodoo X and Crown Of Thorns, he's produced and/or written hits for KISS, The Ramones, John Waite, NSYNC, Doro and others. He's collaborated with Lionel Richie, Bruce Springsteen, Bon Jovi, Nile Rodgers, Desmond Child and many others.

The journey of almost 4 decades continues as the Grammy Nominee and 5 time Rock and Roll Hall of fame collaborator will give fans the opportunity to see him live, performing excerpts from his "hit" catalogue in 2017!

A life story book is also in the planning!

The lineup (TBC) will include Tommy Lafferty (Jean Beauvoir - Solo, Crown Of Thorns, Voodoo X), Hawk Lopez (Crown Of Thorns), Dario Seixas (Crown Of Thorns).

Stay tuned for a Rock and Roll extravaganza not to be missed!!!
